

FREE, 1:1 Professional, Financial Counseling Now Available for All Non-Union City of Racine Employees

When it comes to money & finances, we could all use a little coaching. The Racine Financial Empowerment Center (FEC) is a City service that provides FREE, 1:1, confidential, professional financial counseling to all City residents.

Now, the Racine FEC is also available to all non-union City of Racine employees, regardless of residency.

Review your expenses & get help budgeting

Get professional help to increase your credit score

Increase your savings for emergencies, vacations, education, etc.

1:1 advice and assistance to achieve your financial goals!

Tackle debts and collections; our counselors can even help you negotiate with creditors!

Get your finances ready for home ownership, car loans, entrepreneurship, education, and your other goals!

As many sessions as you want, all 100% confidential

Racine Financial Empowerment Center

Just indicate that you are a City of Racine employee when you fill out the appointment request form online or call to make your first appointment!

RacineFEC.org

262-200-0831

