What is a concussion? A concussion is a type of brain injury that changes the way the brain normally works. A concussion is caused by a bump, blow, or jolt to the head, but may also occur from a blow to the body that causes the head and brain to move rapidly back and forth. Even what seems to be a mild bump to the head can be serious. Concussions can occur during practices or games in any sport or recreational activity.

What to do if a player is suspected of having a concussion:

1. Inform coach and parents immediately.
2. Remove player from practice/game. Player must provide written clearance from a qualified health care provider before being allowed to return to practice/play.
3. Allow the player time to rest and heal. While the brain is still healing, repeat concussions are more likely to occur.

Common symptoms of concussion:

- Difficulty thinking clearly
- Difficulty concentrating or remembering
- Feeling sluggish, hazy, foggy or groggy
- Nervous, irritable, sad, more emotional than normal
- Changes in normal sleep patterns
- Headache or "pressure" in head
- Nausea or vomiting
- Balance problems or dizziness
- Fatigue or feeling tired
- Blurry or double vision
- Sensitivity to light or noise
- Numbness or tingling
- Does not "feel right"

Players may exhibit the following:

- Appears dazed or stunned
- Forgets sports plays
- Is confused about assignment or position
- Moves clumsily
- Answers questions slowly
- Repeats questions
- Can't recall events prior to hit, bump or fall
- Can't recall events after hit, bump, or fall
- Loses consciousness (even briefly)
- Shows behavior or personality changes

Parent Agreement:

I have read the concussion information and understand what a concussion is and how it may be caused. I also understand the common signs, symptoms, and behaviors. I agree that my child must be removed from practice/play if a concussion is suspected. I understand that it is my responsibility to seek medical treatment if a suspected concussion is reported to me. I understand that my child cannot return to the program until providing written clearance from an appropriate health care provider to the PRCS program coordinator. I understand the possible consequences of my child returning to the program too soon.
